

For a complete listing of all college events, please visit the Master Calendar at <http://www.fullcoll.edu/calendar/>

Fullerton College: The Year in Review

As we begin to close the book on another academic year, it is important that the college reflect on some of the many accomplishments that the institution has achieved this year.

- Approved and submitted the Fullerton College Accreditation Progress Report.
- Drafted and approved a formal Institutionalization Procedure.
- Broke ground on the Classroom Office Building and continued construction on the Campus Commons and Chilled Water projects.
- Spent $184,000 on staff travel to further professional development.
- Established the first community college iPod Listening Library.
- Completed construction on the 300 and 500 Building staircases.
- Celebrated the advancement of the Women's Basketball Team to the State Championships.
- Continued the Dynamic Fund Process with the creation a new On-Going Funds Request Procedure.
- Changed the name of the Educational Technology Committee to the Distance Education Advisory Committee (DEAC) and formalized its mission and purpose.
- Allocated $4.23 in on-going COLA to all programs.
- Established the Master Calendar Review Task Force, Basic Skills Committee, and Website Development Committee.
- Approved the concept of Fullerton College as a Smokefree Campus.
- Sponsored several diversity events including a Vietnamese New Year's Celebration, Women's History Month, Black History Month, Holocaust Survivor Leon Leyson, GLADE, paralyzed professional surfer Jesse Billauer, and Little Rock Nine's Dr. Terrence Roberts.
- Continued the tradition of all-staff events such as Convocation, Dodgeball Tournament, and Holiday Open House.
- Spent $1.3 million on technology and $1.2 million in instructional equipment in support of student learning.

These however are only a small sampling of the extraordinary work the college does in support of its students. Fullerton College is an exceptional institution of higher education with excellent faculty and staff – something in which we should all take pride!