

Men and Women of Distinction Committee

Mission and Purpose

Originally formed in 1957 for Men of Distinction (Mu Omicron Delta Honor Society) and 1959 for Women of Distinction (Alpha Gamma Eta Honor Society), the Men and Women of Distinction Committee was reconstituted in 1986 as a combined campus level committee to provide advisement to the Director of Student Affairs. The Men and Women of Distinction Committee reviews and rates applications of qualified candidates, selecting up to 15 male and 15 female students who have made outstanding achievements in their educational and civic pursuits. The committee also selects one male student as Fullerton College Man of the Year and one female student as Fullerton College Woman of the Year.

Chair

Designated as the Director of Student Affairs.
