

Study Abroad Committee

Mission and Purpose

Formed in 1985 as a campus-level committee to provide advisement to the Vice President of Instruction, the Study Abroad Committee promotes the Study Abroad Program by making a judicious selection of an instructor, assisting in the recruitment and selection of students and selecting appropriate sites in various countries. The Committee also coordinates with the parallel Cypress College committee.

Chair

Designated as the Study Abroad Coordinator and appointed by the Faculty Senate.

Meetings

A minimum of two or three meetings each semester.

Composition

6 Fullerton College Faculty Senate Representatives

3 Cypress College Faculty Representatives
