

Recommendations from College Committees and/or their Subcommittees:

Recommendations coming from college committees and/or their subcommittees will be directed to the appropriate administrator. The latter may accept the recommendation, accept the recommendation with modifications, or reject the recommendation. If a recommendation is rejected or modified, a rationale will be provided. Whichever decision is made will be reflected in the committee's minutes.